LOCATION

Paisley is a large town situated in the west central Lowlands of Scotland. Located north of the Gleniffer Braes, the town borders the city of Glasgow and straddles the banks of the White Cart Water, a tributary of the River Clyde. Glasgow is located less than 10 miles to the east and is highly accessible via the M8 Motorway. The town is within close proximity of Glasgow International Airport.

The property is located on the south side of School Wynd, close to its junction with Moss Street. Paisley Gilmour Street Railway Station is within short walking distance, as is access to local bus routes. Surrounding occupiers include Bank of Scotland, WHSmith and Greggs.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a traditional masonry building with retail space on ground floor and office accommodation on the three upper floors.

The subjects comprise self-contained offices on the second and third floors. The stairwell to the offices is accessed via twin recessed glazed pedestrian doors. Internally, each office is square in shape, both with carpeted floors, plaster/paint walls and suspended tile ceilings which incorporate fluorescent strip lighting. Each office benefits from staff welfare facilities and gas central heating.
